

IAWP BEREAVEMENT NOTICE

I regret to inform you of the passing of two women warriors in the month of February. Both these women were dynamic community oriented officers who served their cities with pride and compassion.

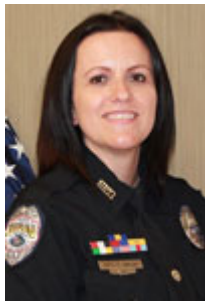

Their presence will be missed in their local and our international law enforcement community.

Queensland (Australia) Police Superintendent Donna Maree Sturgess passed away on February 7, 2015.

Please keep the family, friends and colleagues of Donna and Kate in your thoughts and prayers as they remember the lives of these courageous women who chose serving their fellow (hu)man as their call in life.

Thank you ladies for answering the call. The International Association of Women Police salute you.

Thank you to the IAWP members for sharing the information of our fallen colleagues. Please keep sharing.

Stay Safe as you do all you do.

Blessings,

Tamia Dow
