

In Memoriam

Police Constable Philippa Reynolds

The worldwide Law Enforcement light has dimmed. This weekend PSNI Constable Philippa Reynolds' light was extinguished in a tragic line of duty vehicle collision. The Police community in Ireland and throughout the world has been affected by the unexpected loss of this young constable. Philippa will be missed and long remembered as her passing leaves a hole in the hearts of all in Law Enforcement and all who love and support Law Enforcement Officers around the world.

Condolences can be mailed to:
Chief Constable Matt Baggott
Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI)
45 Meeting Street
Magherafelt BT45 6BW

Please Pray for Constable Reynolds' family, friends and colleagues as they prepare to remember her life and say their good-byes.

Also keep her two colleagues that were inside the vehicle with her in your prayers as they are recovering from their injuries and from being with Philippa at the time she passed away. All of your support, thoughts and prayers will be appreciated.

Stay Safe.
Tamia Dow
IAWP Chaplain

Webpage Links:

Mail Online UK
Article and Video
Northern Ireland Assembly Tributes to Officer
Roses in Tribute to PC Reynolds
Philippa a Daughter of Derry
Book of Condolences in Derry

Police Constable Philippa Reynolds
Police Services Northern Ireland