

IN MEMORIAM

Bereavement of Chicago Police Officer Shaunda Bond

Imagine receiving a phone call as a Detective to respond to investigate a fatal car accident and as the officer gives you the information you recognize the license plate number to be that of your little sister and fellow police officer.

Late Friday night early Saturday morning Wendy Bond received that call.

According to news reports, Wendy's sister Shaunda lost her life in a single car accident on her way to celebrate with friends.

Shaunda had received a new assignment and was prepared to leave on Sunday for a dream vacation.

Sadly Shaunda lost her life in this tragic accident.

Shaunda is one of three sisters in the Bond family that chose law enforcement as their careers.

Shaunda is survived by her sisters : Chicago Police Officer Wendy Bond and Cook County Sheriff's Deputy Sherry Bond. Also by her parents: Bernadine and Wilbert Bond.

Condolences can be mailed to :

Officer Wendy Bond
(for the Bond Family)
Chicago Police Department
3510 S. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60653

Please keep the entire Bond family along with Shaunda's friends and family in your thoughts and prayers.

Stay Safe

Tamia Dow
IAWP Chaplain
February 18, 2013

Links:

Chicago Tribune News, Family Talks about Shaunda
ABC News Local, Video, Off-duty Police Officer Shaunda Bond
TopNews Today, Dispatcher on Duty Fields Call over Sister's Deadly Car Wreck