

Alida Bowles- Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) has been employed for almost twenty (20) years with the Royal Bahamas Police Force. She is presently attached to the Criminal Investigation Department where she is responsible for the Missing and Exploited Persons' Section which is inclusive of Missing Persons/ Runaways, Child Cruelty and Trafficking in Persons.

ASP Bowles holds a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Black Studies and a Master of Science in Education in Clinical Counseling all from Youngstown State University, Youngstown Ohio. She is a certified Mental Health and Sports Counselor, a published poet and a co-author of The Story of the Royal Bahamas Police Force. ASP Bowles also lectures at the Police Training College on the Child Protection Act, Sexual Offences Act and the Trafficking in Persons Act.